

The 14th International Scientific Conference „Region in the Development of Society 2026“

Dear Colleagues, Dear Partners, Distinguished Guests,

It is my great honor and pleasure to cordially invite you to the 14th Annual International Scientific Conference: Region in the Development of Society (RESPO), organized by the Faculty of Regional Development and International Studies at Mendel University in Brno.

In an era of rapid global changes, the role of regions in fostering sustainable development, social cohesion, and economic resilience has never been more critical. Our conference aims to provide a prestigious platform for academics, researchers, policy makers, and practitioners from around the world to share their latest findings, exchange innovative ideas, and discuss the challenges facing modern society.

Key Thematic Areas:

- Regional development and policy in the 21st century
- Sustainable development and environmental challenges
- International studies and global security
- Social inclusion and demographic shifts
- Innovation and digital transformation in regional governance

Important Deadlines
Registration and Fee	15. 9. 2026
